

Recovery Day: A Free Event to Celebrate Overcoming Addiction

NEW WESTMINSTER – Mark your calendar for the 7th annual Recovery Day BC event happening at 6th Avenue and 6th Street in New Westminster, from 12-5 PM on Saturday, September 8, 2018.

Orchard Recovery Center is proud to have been a part of a team that initiated the Recovery Day movement in 2012, and continues to support the movement year after year.

Recovery Day BC is Canada's largest mental health and addiction awareness event.

THE ENTERTAINMENT

This year's event features a free concert with Matthew Good at 4 PM, as well as other live music, a kids zone, over 90 mental health and addiction information booths, free McDonald's coffee, free speaker presentations on health care, a memorial exhibit, and much more.

Whether you are in recovery from a drug or alcohol addiction, an ally to someone who is in recovery, looking for addiction recovery resources, or you just think that sobriety is awesome you're invited! Everyone is welcome to celebrate recovery.

Now in its seventh year, Recovery Day BC is once again shutting down the streets of New West for this substance-free, wicked-awesome and family-friendly event.

Part music festival, part street party, and part educational event, Recovery Day BC is a celebration, a rally, and a tool to raise awareness for recovery while reducing the stigma of addiction.

THE GOAL

Recovery Day aims to celebrate recovery while remembering those lost due to addiction. With over 10,000 people who attended the 2017 event, organizers want to bring awareness to Canadians in recovery from alcohol and drug addictions.

Alongside families, friends, and allies, their goal is to speak with one voice, to send a message that recovery is possible.

This gathering helps to change public perception of what recovery from addiction looks like, and promote public policy change across the country.

On September 8, people in recovery from addiction will join with friends and family to build awareness, challenge societal stigma, and celebrate the role that recovery plays in improving life for individuals, families, and communities.

They firmly believe that recovery saves lives and they envision a world in which recovery from addiction is a common, celebrated reality – a world where individuals will not experience shame when seeking help.

Participants are passionate about sharing the faces, voices and stories of recovery in hopes of inspiring and inviting others to join them on the rewarding and diverse path to wholeness.

This September, be present to stand alongside thousands of others who are proud to be clean and sober from drugs and alcohol, as well as their allies.

From humble roots in Vancouver, Recovery Day has grown into a national phenomena with events taking place all across the country. For more information, head to RecoveryDayBC.ca.
